

“Life on the Inside”
Successful Pest Control in Protective Structures

Confirmed Topics and Speakers

New Regulations for Citrus Production in Protected Culture

Osama El-Lissy, Director, Emergency Management, Emergency and Domestic Programs, Animal Plant Health Inspection Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Effective Pest Management in Greenhouse and Nursery Production

Jim Bethke, Nursery and Floriculture Farm Advisor, University of California Cooperative Extension.

Pest Control Technology in Protected Culture

Kurt Becker, Director of Commercial Sales and Marketing, Dramm Corporation.

Pest Control on Citrus in Protected Culture: New Laws, New Site and New Labels

Dr. Beth Grafton-Cardwell, Extension Specialist University of California Riverside and Center Director at the Lindcove Research & Extension Center.

Efficient Use of the Neonicotinoids in Potted Plants

Dr. Frank J. Byrne, Assistant Research Specialist University of California Riverside, Department of Entomology.

Environmental Management in Protected Culture

Dr. Heiner Lieth, Crop Ecologist, Department of Plant Sciences, University of California Davis.

Florida’s Experience in Growing Citrus in Protected Culture

Phillip Rucks, Owner, Phillip Rucks Citrus Nursery Inc.

All of the above are currently scheduled to speak however; the workshop organizers reserve the right to make changes if necessary.